3. In late May, I moved from Klickitat County to Clallam County. However, I still own a residence in the town of Goldendale in Klickitat County and was registered to vote in Klickitat County.

4. In early June, my wife and I went to the Department of Motor Vehicles to change our drivers' licenses. While we were at the Department of Motor Vehicles we were asked whether we would also like to change our voters' registration. We were told that we could change our registration and sign up for a vote-by-mail ballot. After completing and submitting paperwork at that office, we assumed that we were properly registered in Clallam County.

5. In September, we had not received our vote-by-mail ballots. In order to determine what happened we called the Clallam County Auditor's office. We were informed that we were not able to re-register via the Department of Motor Vehicles and that we should not have been told that it was permissible to re-register at that office. The Auditor's office informed us that we were not registered to vote in Clallam County and could not vote there for the November 2, 2004 election.

6. My wife and I wanted to ensure that our vote was counted in this year's election. Thus, on November 2, 2004, we drove 360 miles the day of the election back to Klickitat County where we were registered to vote. My wife and I went to our designated polling place for our residence in Goldendale. At the polling place, the election worker informed my wife and I that our names were no longer in the poll book. We were also told that because our names were not present, we would be required to vote by provisional ballot. My wife and I signed our names in the poll book and filled out and sealed the envelopes as instructed by the poll workers.

7. In November, my wife and I received a letter from the Klickitat County Auditor's Office, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The letter was dated November 19, 2004, addressed to both my wife and me and stated: "Your provisional ballots for the 11-2-04 election were not counted. We had a note from you indicating your new address and your names were removed from our records." Neither my wife nor I ever gave Klickitat County such a note. Clallam County indicated that we were not registered in that county, so there would have been no reason for Clallam to send a cancellation notice to Klickitat. The cancellation notice we received from Klickitat does not make any sense, and we believed that we were still properly registered in Klickitat County as of November 2, 2004.

8. I was the person who signed the poll book and the person who signed the provisional ballot oath on the envelope.

DATED this 3rd day of December, 2004 in _____.

Donald Henning
